Guidelines

OPW Office of Public Works

Select a firm pumpkin and ensure that the stem is firmly attached.

You may paint or draw or glue materials onto your pumpkin and/or dress it up as you please. Use whatever materials are available to you to create a funky design.

Unfortunately we cannot accept any pumpkin that has been hollowed out, pierced or cut into.

The National Botanic Gardens reserves the right to compost any pumpkin that starts to rot during the contest period.

The National Botanic Gardens is not liable for any damage to your pumpkin.

Bring your decorated pumpkin to the National Botanic Gardens, on Saturday 19th October 2019 between 10am and 4pm. Prizes will be awarded for the most imaginative entry in each age category. Winners will be announced at a Prize Giving on Sunday 20th October 2019 at 3pm. Your pumpkin will be part of our Halloween exhibition until early November.

Remember to bring with you: 1) Completed entry form 2) Completed and cut out label 3) Your decorated pumpkin.
