Guidelines

Select a firm vegetable/s and ensure that the stem is firmly attached.

You may paint, draw or glue materials onto your vegetable/s and/or dress them up as you please. Use whatever materials are available to you to create a funky design.

Unfortunately we cannot accept any pumpkin that has been hollowed out, pierced or cut into.

Bring your decorated vegetable/s to the National Botanic Gardens, on Saturday 21st October 2023 between 11am and 4pm.

Remember to bring with you:

- 1) Completed entry form
- 2) Completed cut out label
- 3) Your decorated vegetable/s

Your vegetable/s will be on display until Sunday 5th November, depending on its freshness.

Winners will be announced at a Prize Giving on Sunday 22nd October 2023.

The National Botanic Gardens is not liable for any damage to your vegetable/s. The National Botanic Gardens reserves the right to compost any vegetable/s that start to rot during the display period.
